

PRIVACY POLICY

Toby Corton & His Band By Chance are committed to maintaining the trust and confidence of our fans who visit our website. In particular, we want you to know that when you sign up for our mailing list, your information will be used in no other way, than to send you Toby related news. So in this Privacy Policy, we've provided information on when and why we collect your personal information, how we use it and how we keep it secure.

When someone visits www.tobycorton.com we use a third party service, Google Analytics, to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the site. This information is only processed in a way which does not identify anyone. We do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

As part of the registration process for our e-newsletter, we collect personal information. We use that information for a couple of reasons: to tell you about stuff you've asked us to tell you about; to check our records are right and to check every now and then that you're happy and satisfied. We don't rent or trade email lists with other organisations and businesses.

We use a third-party provider, MailChimp, to deliver our newsletter. We gather statistics around email opening and clicks using industry standard technologies to help us monitor and improve our e-newsletter. For more information, please see MailChimp's privacy notice. You can unsubscribe to general mailings at any time of the day or night by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of any of our emails or by emailing info@tobycorton.com.

You are entitled to view, amend, or delete the personal information that we hold. Email your request to info@tobycorton.com

This policy will be frequently reviewed and should any changes be made, you will be made aware and be given the opportunity to unsubscribe to the mailing services.
